

Qualified and now looking for work?

How do you talk
with employers about your disability?

So what does TSEP do?

We help access employment opportunities that match your individual skillset and qualification.

Our free on-campus employment services can assist in sharpening your resume, improving interview skills and building confidence to discuss your disability with employers.

Find out how an experienced disability consultant can help transform your career!

tsep.com.au